DATE 8th December 2005 – for immediate release

Lucinda Green joins Board of Amlin Plus

Amlin Plus Limited, the bloodstock and equine intermediary of Amlin Plc, has today announced the appointment of Lucinda Green MBE, the highly distinguished event rider, as a non-executive board member. Amlin Plus specialises in insurance coverage for thoroughbred breeding and racing stock, together with high value sport horses.

David Ashby, Director of Amlin Plus said, “Lucinda has an iconic reputation in the bloodstock world, established by an illustrious riding career. We are delighted that she has accepted the offer to join the Board of Directors. Lucinda’s energy and commitment, together with her knowledge and experience will be a tremendous asset to the Board and in the future growth of Amlin Plus.”

Lucinda Green regularly represented Great Britain and is the only rider to have won Badminton six times, on six different horses. She is an Olympic silver medallist, World Champion, and double European Champion and won the Tony Collins Memorial Trophy an unprecedented seven times, before retiring from full time eventing.

At present Lucinda is Chairman of Team Selection, a worldwide Cross Country clinician, a Director of British Evening and continues to event whilst actively involved with media work.

Lucinda Green stated, “I’m delighted to be appointed to the board of Amlin Plus and am very much looking forward to working with the team to further develop the company. In only a few years Amlin Plus has established an outstanding reputation both in England and abroad for its expertise and ability in supporting top level competition and racehorses.”
